

Nominating Committee Report

February 2, 2017

World Space Week Association

Yann Gouy is nominated as a Director, term expiring in 2018

Yann GOUY is currently Lead Key Account Manager of the French Space Agency at Airbus. With a strong focus on Business Development in various industries, he has an Engineering background and demonstrated experience in innovation and technology development. He previously acted as Programme Manager for Space Traffic Management activities and solutions development for the European market in the same company. Strongly engaged in the initiatives of the German-French Chamber of Industry and Commerce to foster the German-French friendship and partnership he is also involved in the French and European aerospace associations GIFAS, 3AF and Eurospace.