

World space week

As part of participations in the activities in of the world space week from 19 to 25/3/1445, a program was held inside the school, where many teachers gave lectures on space under the title of:

- the sun and the solar system
- near space
- far space
- The journey to search for live outside earth
- information about space
- space wonders and means of space explorations